Exclusive Title Sponsor for Double Platinum is defined by Charlotte Frontier Days as a main sponsor of a whole day / category event. While other companies can sponsor specific activities within a main event (i.e. Pony Rides sponsored by XYZ Company), the double platinum sponsor is named as the main sponsor of the whole day / category event (i.e. If a bank is a double platinum sponsor of Family Events, no other Financial Institution can be named or advertised as a title sponsor of Family Events or other Main Events, unless agreed upon by all parties).

*ROFR (Right of First Refusal) is defined by Charlotte Frontier Days as follows: An agreement between Charlotte Frontier Days and a double platinum sponsor stating that the double platinum sponsor will be offered the opportunity to be the double platinum sponsor of the same main event for the next festival held. Should the double platinum sponsor refuse / decline this opportunity, Charlotte Frontier Days will then offer the opportunity to a different company.
